

Pro Se Divorce - Without Children
For Use in Lancaster County District Court Only

- The steps below must be completed, in order, before your court date.
 - These steps assume that you and your spouse agree on (1) the division of your property, and (2) the division of your debt. If you do not, these steps will not be sufficient and the Court strongly recommends that you consult an attorney. If you own real estate, or you or your spouse has a retirement plan with a current or former employer, the Court strongly recommends that you consult an attorney.
 - Do not call the Clerk of the Court or the Bailiff for help in completing this process. They are unable to provide legal advice.
 - All forms (italicized below), and the instructions you will need to complete them, are available from the resources listed on Page 2 of this sheet.
 - These steps are general in nature; depending on the specifics of your particular case, you may have different or additional requirements.

Step 1. With the Clerk of the District Court, file the following forms:

- Complaint for Dissolution of Marriage*; Confidential Party Information; and
- Vital Statistics Certificate*; Social Security Information.

Step 2. Obtain Service on your spouse by either

- Voluntary Appearance*, OR Personal Service (Praecipe for Summons), OR Publication.
- Proof of Service must be filed with the Clerk of the District Court.

Step 3. Obtain a hearing date from the bailiff of the judge assigned your case (the name of your judge and bailiff is available at the Clerk's Office). Do not contact the bailiff until you have completed service on your spouse. The bailiff will require proof of service filed with the District Court before scheduling your hearing. Also note that the hearing can be set no earlier than 60 days after you have obtained service on your spouse.
