

NEWS RELEASE

MAYOR COLEEN J. SENG

lincoln.ne.gov

AGING SERVICES/LINCOLN AREA AGENCY ON AGING
1001 "O" St., Suite 101, Lincoln, NE 68508, 441-6157, fax 441-6524

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: June 2, 2004

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Deb Batten, Public Information Officer, 441-6156

CONCERNED ABOUT THE WELL-BEING OF AN OLDER PERSON WHO EXPERIENCED LOSSES IN THE RECENT SOUTHEAST NEBRASKA TORNADOES?

The Lincoln Area Agency on Aging's LIFE Office has professional Aging Specialists working along the path of the tornado with residents who are age 60 and older.

- Aging Services can help with:
- Insurance concerns
- Applications for Federal Disaster Loans and Grants
- Cleanup and Recovery Concerns
- Temporary Housing, Relocation and Resettlement
- Advocacy and Service Coordination
- Care Giving and Long-Term Care Concerns
- Health Care and Special Care Needs

If you need information and assistance personally or know of an older person who may, call Aging Services with any Aging and disaster-related concern at 441-7070 or 800-247-0938 or visit the Aging Services table at the Disaster Recovery Center located in Cortland at the Cortland Community Center.